Sofie van der Linden

Senior Product Manager at Fietsly | Marketplaces, pricing and the occasional spreadsheet argument

Amsterdam, North Holland, Netherlands

Summary

I build two-sided marketplaces, mostly the unglamorous parts: pricing, payouts and trust. Eight years in product, two before that as a data analyst, so I still write my own SQL and occasionally regret it. Right now I lead pricing and supply at Fietsly, a bike-sharing marketplace in six Dutch cities.

Experience

Fietsly
4 years 2 months

Senior Product Manager
January 2023 - Present (1 year 10 months)
Amsterdam, North Holland, Netherlands

- Introduced dynamic pricing by neighbourhood and hour, raising revenue per bike by 18% without lowering ride counts.

- Redesigned the payout model for fleet partners, cutting payout disputes from about 60 a month to 9.

- Set up the experimentation review that now signs off every pricing test before launch.

Product Manager
September 2020 - December 2022 (2 years 4 months)
Amsterdam, North Holland, Netherlands

Owned the rider app's checkout and subscriptions. Launched the monthly pass, which grew to 23,000 subscribers in its first year. Moved card payments to a new provider with no downtime during the switch.

Boekhuis.nl

Product Analyst
June 2018 - August 2020 (2 years 3 months)
Utrecht, Netherlands

Built the weekly trading dashboards used by category managers. Ran the first A/B tests on search ranking, which lifted conversion from search by 6%.

Kader Consulting

Junior Data Analyst
September 2016 - May 2018 (1 year 9 months)
Rotterdam, South Holland, Netherlands

Cleaned and modelled retail sales data for clients in fashion and groceries.
